A Most Valuable Agent.

The glycerine employed in Dr. Pierce's medicines greatly enhances the medicinal properties which it extracts from native medicinal roots and holds in solution much better than alcohol would. It also possesses medicinal properties of its own, being a valuable demulcent, nutritive, antiseptic and antiferment. It adds greatly to the efficacy of the Black Cherry-bark, Bloodroot, Golden Seal root, Stone root and Queen's root, contained in "Golden Medical Discovery" in subduing chronic, or lingering coughs, bronchial, throat and lung affections, for all of which these agents are recommended by standard medical authorities.

In all cases where there is a wasting away of flesh, loss of appetite, with weak stomach, as in the early stages of consumption, there can be no doubt that glycerine acts as a valuable nutritive and aids the Golden Seal root, Stone root, Queen's root and Black Cherrybark in promoting digestion and building up the flesh and strength, controlling the cough and bringing about a healthy condition of the whole system. Of course, it must not be expected to work miracles. It will not cure consumption except in its earlier stages. It will cure very severe, obstinate, hang-on, chronic coughs, bronchial and laryngeal troubles and chronic sore throat with hoarseness. In acute coughs it is not so effective. It is in the lingering hang-on coughs, or those of long standing, even when accompanied by bleeding from lungs, that it has performed its most marvelous cures.

Prof. Finley Ellingwood, M. D., of Bennett Med. College, Chicago, says of glycerine:

"In dyspepsia it serves an excellent purpose. Holding a fixed quantity of the peroxide of hydrogen in solution, it is one of the best manufactured products of the present time in its action upon enfeebled, disordered stomachs, especially if there is ulceration or catarrhal gastritis (catarrhal inflammation of stomach), it is a most efficient preparation. Glycerine will relieve many cases of pyrosis (heartburn) and excessive gastric (stomach) acidity."

"Golden Medical Discovery" enriches and purifies the blood curing blotches, pimples, eruptions, scrofulous swellings and old sores, or ulcers.

Send to Dr. R. V. Pierce, of Buffalo, N. Y., for free booklet telling all about the native medicinal roots composing this wonderful medicine. There is no alcohol in it.

WAVE OF CRIME.

Chicago appeared Sunday to have been seized by a veritable wave of crime, and when the last reports of the day were in the police were confronted with two baffling murder mysteries, one murder and suicide and one killing in which the murderer fled and left his victim to die later at the Alexian Brothers' Hospital.

In addition there was another attack upon a white girl six years old by a negro. Following is a summary of Sunday's crime:

The body of an unidentified man was taken from the river; his hands were tied and his clothing was weighted with stones.

The body of Joseph Geniesiti was taken from the lake at the foot of Twelfth street. The police scent a murder mystery and are investigating the death.

Ross C. Price murdered his wife because the baby cried all night, and then committed suicide.

John Goss was struck on the head with an iron bar in a quarrel and died at the Alexian Brothers' Hospital. The murderer escaped.

Hilda Anderson, six years old, was attacked by a negro. This is the fifth case of the kind to be reported to the police within ten days.

THE PLATT DIVORCE SUIT.

Though every effort was made to keep the proceedings secret, Mae C. Wood's suit for absolute divorce from U. S. Senator Thomas C. Platt came up in the Supreme Court in New York yesterday afternoon. Miss Wood, who is a handsome blonde, has been schoolteacher, lawyer and stenographer, and it was through Senator Platt's influence that she got a position as government stenographer in the Postoffice Department at Washington.

She declares that Senator Platt married her at the Fifth Avenue Hotel on November 1, 1901, and that the aged Senator's marriage to Lillian T. Janeway, nearly two years afterwards, was null and void.

J. Day Lee, counsel for Mae Wood, said:

We have absolute proof that Miss Wood was married to Senator Platt on November 11, 1901, and she is now suing him for absolute divorce on the only ground upon which a divorce can be obtained in New York.

Senator Platt denies absolutely that he was married to Mae Wood and denies the charge in the bill for divorce.

TELEGRAPH AND TELEPHONE COMPANIES.

The State Corporation Commission has just completed the assessment of telegraph and telephone companies for the year 1907 and the figures below show the increase over the year 1906:

Total value of all property, 1907, $2,337, 120.12; 1906, $1,911,150.95; increase, $415,169.17; total property tax, 1907, $8,179 91; 1906, $6,692.99; increase, $1,486.92; gross earnings in Virginia, 1907, $1,271,974.75; 1906, $1,069,556.52; increase, $202,418.23; total license tax, 1907, $33,642.26; 1906, $29,196 46; increase, $3,345.80; grand total State tax, 1907, $41,722.17; 1906, $35,889.45; increase; $5,832.62.

The total value of all property, $2,337,120.12, is subdivided so as to show the value in each city and town and each school district of each county through which the lines run, these valuations being required by law to be used as basis for local levy by city, town and county authorities.

His Dear Old Mother.

"My dear old mother, who is now eighty-three years old, thrives on Electric Bitters," writes W. B. Brunson, of Dublin, Ga. "She has taken them for about two years and enjoys an excellent appetite, feels strong and sleeps well." That's the way Electric Bitters affect the aged, and the same happy results follow in all cases of female weakness and general debility. Weak, puny children, too, are greatly strengthened by them. Guaranteed also for stomach, liver and kidney troubles, by all druggists. 50c.

BREWERY WORKERS INDICTED.

Eighteen members of United Brewery Workers' unions in Washington were indicted yesterday for conspiracy by the grand jury. They are charged with maliciously and unlawfully combining and conspiring to injure and destroy the trade and business of several bottling firms because the latter refused to grant demands of the local union men for increased pay and shorter hours.

The union men were indicted jointly upon the charge of conspiracy. Among them is Louis Weingart.

It is asserted that the unions exercised the right to limit and restrict business dealings of persons and firms by declaring certain employers of workmen to be "unfair" and "unfair to organized labor" in cases of noncompliance by such employers with union demands.

WOMEN AND WINE.

The pulpit crusade against women drinking reached a climax yesterday with the publication of charges that members of the Chicago "400" had engaged in a disgraceful "spill," following the kirmess winter before last. The charges against certain society women were made by Rev. F. G. Smith, pastor of the Warren Avenue Congregational Church, who came to the aid of Rev. F. E. Hopkins, of Pilgrim Congregational Church, who originated the crusade. The minister declared that at the conclusion of the kirness several of the society women, together with their escorts, took part in a champagne dinner. He declared that it had been charged that before the dinner was concluded the contents of bottles of wine were poured over the fine garments the women, over their heads, and over the clothes of the men. Society leaders are fighting back vigorously, but in the absence of Mrs. Stanley Field, who had charge of the kirness, and who at present is visiting relatives in Baltimore, no official denial could be made.

A Certain Cure for Croup—Used for Ten Years without a Failure.

Mr. W. C. Bott, a Star City, Ind., hardware merchant, is enthusiastic in his praise of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. His children have all been subject to croup and he has used this remedy for the past ten years, and though they much fear the croup, his wife and he always felt safe upon retiring when a bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy was in the house. His oldest child was subject to severe attacks of croup, but this remedy never failed to effect a speedy cure. He has recommended it to friends and neighbors and all who have used it say that it is unequaled for croup and whooping cough. For sale by Gibson & Timberman and W. F. Creighton & Co.

FOR OVER SIXTY YEARS.

AN OLD AND WELL-TRIED REMEDY.—Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup has been used for over sixty years by millions of mothers for their children while teething with perfect success. Twenty-five cents a bottle. Its value is incalculable. Be sure and ask for Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup and take no other kind.

[Editorial in Hartford, Conn., Daily Courant.]

Collector P. Davis Oakley has voluntarily withdrawn the personal bond of $25,000, given for the proper performance of his duties, and has substituted the bond of a fidelity company for the same amount. This commendable action deserves a passing comment. Mr. Oakley found no difficulty whatever in getting bondsmen, but, whoever his bondsmen might be, there could be no denying that they had put the collector under a direct personal obligation to them. It is far more independent and self respecting, to go down into your own pocket for the premium and pay a corporation, chartered for the purpose, for giving its bond for you. This cost him some money, but with that he buys complete personal independence and sets an example that should be widely followed. It is the way to do business; and it is no reflection upon willing friends to go instead to a company. On the contrary, it is doing them a favor.

ALEXANDRIA GAZETTE AND VIRGINIA ADVERTISER.

TUESDAY EVENING, OCT. 1. 1907.

A DISPATCH from Berlin says that bitter charges of immorality and hypocrisy are made against America by Maxim Gorky, in a sensational new novel printed in Germany and Russia which has made its appearance simultaneously at Leipsic and Moscow. Gorky in this publication expounds his views of sexual relations and free love. Gorky defends his action in taking to America a woman who was not his wife. He retaliates for the treatment accorded him in the United States when the identity of his companion was discovered by his denunciation of that country. He insists America is the most immoral country in the world, says divorces are most abundant here and that society is corrupt to the core. In both Leipsic and Moscow the book has been confiscated, the censors declaring it a menace to public morals. Its circulation will not be premitted unless many passages are omitted. Gorky was, very properly, run out of the country by public opinion. There are doubtless many things in the United States to which exception could be taken, but, fortunately, but a small percentage of the people of the nation sympathize with Gorky, and they are not native and to the manner born.

TO BISHOP POTTER'S assertion that universal peace is "only a poet's dream," several answers are promised from New York pulpits next Sunday. Certain clergymen of many denominations are expressing surprise that one of their cloth and a man of peace should declare war inevitable. They will attack the bishop's theory as a fallacy, deny that fighting is anything but an unmixed evil and urge that an international arbitration court could readily end it forever. Bishop Potter is undoubtedly correct in his assertions. Poets and others have been dreaming of universal peace for the past three thousand years, while wars and rumors of war are still in the air.

PRESIDENT ROOSEVELT'S last official act before starting upon his western and southern trip was to appoint as collector of internal revenue at Cincinnati, Bernhard Bettman. In so doing, he ignored entirely the recommendations of Senators Foraker and Dick, who had urged for the place Max Burgheim, the editor of the Volksblatt, of Cincinnati, and a warm friend of Foraker. Announcement of the appointment was made yesterday, and in connection with the action of the city convention of Cincinnation Saturday, it assumed unusual political significance. It clearly indicates that Senator Foraker has already been eliminated from all consideration in the Ohio political situation.

From Washington.

[Correspondence of the Alexandria Gazette.]

Washington, Oct. 1.

The first three months of the fiscal year, which closed yesterday, shows a falling off in receipts of over $9,000,000. This has been due, however, largely to increased expenditures in the navy, and public works, and not to any great slackening up in general business. The total treasury receipts were $165,571,229, against $159,803,640 for the same period of last year. The expenditures were $159,987,136 against $153,944,171 last year. At that period there was a surplus for the three months of almost $6,000,000. This year there is a deficiency of $4,000,000.

Secretary Taft's speech before the Chamber of Commerce of Tokio yesterday is expected to have a good effect upon the international relations between Japan and this country. His recognition of the wonderful progress made by the Mikado's empire, within the last half century, can not, it is believed, fail to flatter the pride of the Japanese people, and the reminder that American officers and statesmen have, in fact, made that progress possible, is regarded as particularly appropriate, at this time. Surprise is expressed in some quarters at the extended references made by the secretary to the subject of war between the two countries, and the emphasis he felt called upon to lay upon his denial of the possibility of any such contingency. It is pointed out, however, that he was talking to a Japanese audience, which had been fed by the yellow press of that country on war rumors in connection with the sending of the Atlantic battleship to the Pacific. His statement that the suggestion of war between the two countries is "infamous" and that the good will of America towards Japan is as warm as ever, is, it is said, heartily approved in official circles in Washington.

After a trip across Maryland in the big army balloon, with which they have been experimenting, Capt. Charles De F. Chandler, Signal corps, U. S. A., and J. C. McCoy, pilot, returned to Washington early today. The ascension was the most successful they have yet made, the huge gas bag being carried 87 miles across southeastern Maryland, Chesapeake Bay, and nearly to the Atlantic ocean. They managed to land in a clover patch at milking time, near Princess Anne, Md., having maintained a rate of about eighteen miles an hour. Part of the time they were above the clouds the highest elevation reached being 6,000 feet.

More than 14,000,000 men are available for military duty in the United States in the case all three of the armies —regular, organized and unorganized— should be called upon for active service. The strength of these armies is approximately 65,000 regular, 111 organized and 14,000,000 unorganized.

EPISCOPAL CONVENTION.

The vanguard of the Episcopal host that will be in triennial convention in Richmond for three weeks, commencing tomorrow, October 2, is arriving. Between four and five thousand delegates and prominent churchmen from every section of the country will be there by Wednesday. A notable feature of the convention will be the presentation services to be held in Bruton Church, Williamsburg, October 5, when a Bible and lectern will be presented to Burton parish. As heretofore stated the Bible is a gift of King Edward, and will be presented by the Bishop of London. The lectern, a gift of President Roosevelt, will be presented by the Bishop of Washington. The gifts will be accepted in behalf of the parish by Bishop Gibson, of Virginia. The three weeks' session of the convention will be marked by three social functions in the form of two receptions in honor of the Bishop of London, and a reception in honor of the visiting delegates.

The Bishop of London will arrive in Richmond this afternoon. His train will be made up entirely of observation and parlor cars. Besides the Bishop of London, there will be 75 or 80 distinguished delegates to the General Episcopal Convention, who will go to Richmond on this train. The train will be met at Ebbs station by a special committee, who will escort the delegates to their respective places of residence while in attendance upon the convention. The special will arrive too late for the consecration services at Holy Trinity Church.

An excursion will be given to Jamestown Island on October 12, when the delegates will be the guests of the Diocese of Virginia. Holy communion will be observed to two of the local churches on the morning of each working day during the convention. The opening service of the convention will be held Wednesday morning in Holy Trinity Church, and will be preceded by the procession of bishops. Admittance to the service will only be granted to the visiting delegates, members of the Woman's Auxiliary and bishops. The House of Bishops will hold its sessions in the Virginia House of Delegates and the House of Deputies in St. Paul's Church.

At the consecration this morning of the Church of the Holy Trinity, Rev. J. J. Gravatt, rector, the consecrator was Bishop Gibson and the sermon by Bishop Peterkin.

Tonight Bishop Gibson will hold a reception in honor of the Bishop of London.

The General Convention will open tomorrow with Bishop Tuttle presiding. The Bishop of London will preach the opening sermon.

ANOTHER ARREST.

While the mystery in the case of Miss Amelia Weiss, the young girl who stated that while with John Mullen near Rosslyn, Alexandria county, last Sunday afternoon, her companion was beaten with a club and shot by a burly negro, who afterward dragged her into a ravine and detained her there for nearly an hour, has not been fully cleared up. It seems certain that the assailant was not a negro, but a white man, and Mullen declares that it was a brother of Miss Weiss.

Miss Weiss yesterday repeated her statement that it was a colored man who assaulted Mullen, and when confronted with Caton Herron, who was arrested because he answered the description that she gave of the assailant, declared that Herron looked and talked like the man who had committed the assault. Herron, however, has established a perfect alibi.

Mullen declared to his brother, Ernest L. Mullen, who visited him at the Georgetown Hospital, that it was a white man, and he added that he believed it was a brother of Miss Weiss, who lives in southwest Washington, and not Emile Weiss, the young man who was arrested Sunday night. Charles Weiss, a baker, of 1123 Four-and-a-half street southwest, a brother of the girl, was later arrested. He was surrendered to the Virginia authorities. Weiss shoutly denies the charge, and says he can prove an alibi.

Miss Weiss's description of her assailant is said by the police to be so general that it would fit any colored man in the vicinity. George Bradley is one of the colored men who has been arrested, but he proved an alibi, as well as Caton Herron. Two other colored men have also been arrested.

As yet no operation has been performed on John Mullen, the companion of Miss Weiss, who lies at the Georgetown University Hospital in a critical condition. It was announced that an effort was to have been made to remove the bullets from his neck and thigh yesterday, but when the time for the operation came the physicians thought it best to delay until the general condition of the patient improved. Because of the location of the injury to Mullen's mouth it has been impossible for him to eat any solid foods, and last night the physicians stated that complications had developed making it impossible for him to take any nourishment whatever.

Yesterday Miss Weiss, accompanied by her mother, called at the hospital, in hopes of being allowed to see the injured man. The hospital officials, however, because of the weakened condition of the young man, were compelled to refuse them the privilege.

Though still in a highly nervous state, the young girl showed great improvement yesterday, and was able to furnish Mr. Mackey with several important facts concerning the alleged attack which she had failed to mention before.

People in the county question the story of Miss Weiss.

ISLANDS TO BE SOLD.

The Three Sisters will soon be sold by auction. These islands, which are situated about a quarter of a mile above the Aqueduct Bridge, it now develops, form a part of the estate of the late John Moore, to whom they were granted by a land patent in the reign of King George.

According to an ancient legend, the Three Sisters received their appellation because three sisters, riding in a frail craft, drowned off the rocks of the little islands.

Judge Kunkel instructed the Dauphin county, Pa., grand jury yesterday with reference to its investigation of the cases against the 14 contractors and former State officials accused of complicity in "capitol graft." If there was a deliberate falsification of accounts, it was added, indictment may be returned for obtaining money by false pretenses.

CLAMS ON JUDGE PARKER.

At the recent meeting of the bar association at Portland, Me., Judge Alton B Parker was talking on the way to the clambake to a lawyer who hailed from Alexandria.

"What will be the effect," inquired Judge Parker, in a humorons way, "if they pass a law in the south eliminating titles from your average prominent citizens? I have heard that such a possibility is contemplated in some of the southern States."

"Such a thing would be a calamity," replied the Alexandrian. "I know that people in the north have had a good deal of fun with our part of the country for its liberality in conferring titles.

"But the custom has its advantage. Not all public men have the remarkable faculty possessed by the late James G. Blaine of being able to recall quickly the name of every one whom he had previously met, maybe only once.

"But in the south the politician, anxious to leave the impression that he has not forgotten, has only to say when he suddenly meets a constituent, 'How are you, Colonel?' That breaks the ice and the constituent glows all over."

"But if the constituent should be a general or a judge?" said Judge Parker.

"That would make no difference," interposed the Alexandrian. "The constituent would at once reflect that he had been a colonel before he became a general, and as there were so many promotions in the South, he would be charitable to the politician by thinking that the latter could not have possibly remembered all. Besides, it is always safe to address a southern man as colonel."

"Suppose," said Judge Parker, in his characteristic way, "the constituent had been only on the bench?"

"In that case," replied the Alexandrian in a gracious Virginia way, "it would be the duty of the constituent to correct the error. That is one of the prerogatives of a judge."

"Suppose," continued Judge Parker, trying to corner his brother, "that the constituent had retired from the bench?"

"We never retire a judge," was the quick response of the Virginian, "not even to make him a presidential candidate."

Fortunately for Judge Parker the steamer at that moment touched the clambake reservation, and the late democratic presidential candidate, who had retired himself to lead a forlorn hope, said the clams were on him.—[Exchange.

[Although no name is mentioned it is easy to guess that the Alexandrian referred to is Mr. James R. Caton.]

PLAYED SEVENTEEN INNINGS.

In one of the greatest baseball games ever seen in Philadelphia, Detroit and Philadelphia, who are making a sensational fight for the American League championship, yesterday played each other to a standstill. The game went seventeen innings and was called by the umpires because it was too dark to play any longer. Both teams were worked up to a high pitch and going strong, and neither side wanted to quit, although the street lamps surrounding the grounds had already been lighted. There being no result, the positions of the teams remain the same, Detroit having a lead of seven points. Each team has seven more games on its schedule before the season ends. Had it not been for the fact that two games were to have been played, necessitating an early start, the game would not have gone seventeen innings. It was a remarkable contest in many ways, and the crowd that saw it was probably the largest that ever gathered in a ball grounds in that city. The official paid attendance was 24,127, but several thousand more persons gained admission on passes or otherwise. Nicholl, short stop for Philadelphia, played a sensational game, while the batting of Cobb, for Detroit, was a distinct feature.

New York Stock Market.

New York, Oct. 1.—The sudden squeeze in Canadian Pacific that was the feature of the late trading yesterday was a market influence this morning, causing some urgent covering of shorts around the room, on which prices moved up, amounts ranging from fractions to over one point. After the first hour the market lost all the strength that had been the feature in the early trading and some sharp declines occurred before noon.

MR. BARR OUT.

Despite the efforts made to induce him to remain at the head of the Jamestown Exposition, Mr. James M. Barr insists that his resignation be accepted. In answer to the Board of Directors, he says the action is final with him.

The letter was received yesterday after a consultation with Judge Taylor S. Garnett and Admiral Harrington, of the United States navy.

Mr. Barr's letter is as follows:

"To the board of directors, Jamestown Exposition Company:

"Gentlemen,—I have received your request, adopted at your meeting held on the 24th instant (with, I am informed, but one dissenting vote), that I withdraw my resignation as director-general, tendered upon the 16th instant, and I beg to say in reply, after full consideration, that while I greatly value and fully appreciate this expression of confidence in me, I cannot do so under the conditions existing, and therefore beg to ask that I be relieved at once.

"In accepting the director-generalship of the exposition, at a time when the resources of your company were exhausted, and when the exposition, in consequence, faced disaster, I was naturally bound to serve in this capacity until it had been conducted to a conclusion, if the conditions imposed by me, accepted by you and incorporated in your by-laws, were recognized and enforced.

"This, for reasons satisfactory to you, has not been done, and being, in consequence, powerless to do the things for the exposition which its reputation and success, in my opinion, demanded, I requested to be relieved of the duties of director-general as soon as the exposition was completed in a through manner as a creditable exposition, believing my full obligation thereto had been performed under the circumstanes existing.

"As the exposition has been completed, it can now be easily conducted to a conclusion if discord be eliminated from its management, and if I can be of any further benefit, in an unofficial capacity, I would be glad to have you call upon me.

"I beg to express, through you, my thorough appreciation of and thanks for the urgent requests made upon you by the members of the State Commissioners' Association, the business men of Norfolk and the concessionaries, that I be induced to continue to serve as director-general, and to say that I would have pleasure in comply with their wishes if it were possible for me to do so.

Yours very truly,

"J. M. BARR."

Following the issuance of Mr. Barr's letter the resignation of John A. Wakefield as director of concessions and admissions, and also that of H. E. Sherwood, chief of that department, were handed in. It is also said that the resignations of Stephen W. Bolles as director of advertising, and W. M. Dixon as assistant to the director-general are also ready.

"GOOD GROWING WEATHER."

When the New Scalp Antiseptic is Used

A good head of hair is as much a "crown of glory," for man as it is for woman, notwithstanding all the poetry on the subject applied to the female sex exclusively. In the season when flies bite, the bald-headed man can sympathize with the Egyptians who were so sorely plagued on account of the children of Israel. Why not try Newbro's Herpicide? Others have been benefited and are loud in its praise. It cleanses the scalp, kills the germ at the root of the hair and by keeping the scalp sweet, pure and wholesome, the hair is bound to grow as nature intended, regardless of the temperature. The President in Iowa.

Keokuk, Ia., Oct. 1.—Lavish decorations of flags and bunting greeted President Roosevelt when he arrived in Keokuk this morning. The population of the city was multiplied by throngs of sight-seers from near-by sections of three states, Illinois, Iowa and Missouri.

The President's line of progress from the station to the stand in Rand Park was packed with people and at several points school children were massed, singing national airs. A reception committee, headed by Governor Cummins, the mayor of the city and other dignitaries met the President at the train. A detachment of the Iowa National Guard was on hand to escort the President to Rand Park, and he was met there by members of the Waterways Commission, who are to accompany him on his trip down the Mississippi river.

The President's steamer will make no stops between Keokuk and St. Louis. He is expected to arrive in St. Louis tomorrow morning at eight o'clock. Many of the governors and other public men will go to St. Louis by special train. The President's train was half an hour leaving Canton yesterday, but it arrived here at 9:05, only five minutes behind the schedule. The President surprised the people of Lima, O, by making a speech there during the time his train was stopped.

The steamer Mississippi, bearing President Roosevelt and his party, left the boat wharf here at 11 a. m. after the President had delivered a stirring address in Rand Park. Steamers of all descriptions accompanied the President's boat down the father of waters.

The President, in his address, warned the people against inviting the fate of Rome, by drawing the lines of battle between the classes and the masses so distinctly that those who have gained their wealth by honest means are confused with those who have become rich by dishonest means. He reiterated his declaration that he will stand by the honest business man and corporation as steadfastedly as he will fight for the rights of the masses.

To Be Surrendered.

Hong Kong, Oct. 1.—The British authorities at Hong Kong have asked for the surrender of H. Adsetts, the former sergeant of the American legation guard at Pekin, now a prisoner on the United States cruiser Galveston at Chefoo under charge of murdering Gertrude Dayton, whose body was found in trunk on the Royal Mail steamship Monteagle. The request will be complied with. The trunk containing Gertrude Dayton's body was taken aboard the Monteagle by an American who represented himself as a passenger and then disappeared. The woman was evidently strangled, and it is conjectured that robbery was the motive. Adsetts had $2,400 in gold and several valuable gems when arrested at Chefoo. The prisoner became a professional pugilist after resigning from the United States Marine Corps, but his career was terminated by a knock out by Mike Patton at Tiensen early this year.

Alleged Cause of Rising Prices.

Chicago, Oct., 1.—The inquiry into causes for the rise in the price of meats has elicited many explanations from stock yard experts, but the most unique of them all was laid before United States Attorney Sims today when an attorney for one of the biggest concerns declared the increased cost is due to the increase of government inspectors and other "useless labor." His opinion is: "The meat industry has been loaded down with so many inspectors, examiners, commissioners and other parasitic functionaries that in order to meet the tax laid on meats, the packers are forced to charge more. Every additional measure for the protection of the public in the provision of petty officials, whose salaries must be paid out of the sale of meats, adds to the consumer's burden. The packer can protect himself by raising the prices, and he is left no choice but to add the increased expense to his prices."

Excitement in Servia.

Belgrade, Servia, Oct. 1.—Cavalry detachments are still patrolling the streets today as a precaution against an outbreak of violence following the discovery that Maxim and Milan Novakovics, the two former army officers found dead in jail Sunday, were murderrd by the police.

Public excitement has increased rather than abated within the past few hours, and, despite the fact that the police prefect in charge of the prison has been ordered to be tried on a capital charge, the people are bent on killing him.

One of the Novakovics was editor of an anti-regecide journal and both were well-known, highly thought of and members of a prominent family.

Suicide at Niagara

Niagara Falls, N. Y., Oct. 1.—A Buffalo bank defaulter is supposed to have committed suicide early today by jumping into the falls. A reservation man found a coat on the island. In the pocket were two letters, one to the coroner, the other to a woman in Buffalo. The coroner withholds the woman's name. The letter to the coroner follows: "Don't take the trouble to try to identify my body, if it is found. I stole from a Buffalo trust company by falsifying my accounts. I took the money for two women, one a girl, the other an actress; but they did not know. I take this means of ending the trouble for my folks would not want to bury a thief. Don't bother the women."

Dynamite Outrage.

Baker City, Ore., Oct. 1.—Detectives are making a careful search today for Harry Orchard's successor, who blew up former Sheriff Harvey M. Brown last night in the style most approved by Orchard and with diabolical cunning equal to that of the arch-assassin. Brown is in a critical condition. One of his legs was blown off. One arm was badly mutilated and he was otherwise severely hurt. A wire found today indicates that the assassin lay in hiding until the victim approached the death machine. Brown as sheriff made a hard campaign against saloons and gamblers.

The Challenge from Sweden.

Stockholm, Sweden, Oct. 1.—Lack of finances may prevent a race between American and Swedish yachts for the America's cup, despite the challenge sent by the Royal Swedish Yacht Club to New York, unless the New York Yacht Club agrees to a contest between boats to not exceed seventy feet on the water line instead of the ninety-foot freak racing boats of recent contests. William Olsson and Gosta Kyplberger, the challengers, estimate a race of seventy footers will cost $1,000,000 kronor, about $270,000. This sum they can furnish. If the New York Club insist upon 90-foot models, it may be impossible to raise sufficent funds.

Charged With Murder.

Raleigh, N. C. Oct. 1.—To show that he is "Dr. Jekel and Mr. Hyde", leading an outwardly exemplary life while studying poisons and plotting murder, will be the effort of the prosecution in the trial of Dr. Thomas L. Rowland, whose trial on the charge of murdering Charles R. Strange, a locomotive engineer, has begun. Mrs. Rowland, formerly Strange's widow, is also accused of complicity in the alleged crime. It is the theory of the prosecution that they planned Strange's death so that they might wed.

The Boxer Uprising.

Shanghai, Oct. 1.—Strong forces of troops are hurrying to Kangchowful, province of Kiang-Si, to suppress the boxer uprising which began there last week, punish those responsible for the destruction of the Catholic and China inland missions, avenge the murder of the French priest killed during the rioting and protect the other missionaries, who with their families, have thus far escaped violence, but are in grave danger of death at the hands of native fanatics.

Secretary Taft's Address.

Tokio, Oct. 1.—Depite the pessimistic note of a few journals, which profess to see in Secretary of War Taft's pacific utterances no more than a few meaningless diplomatic phrases, the Japanese press is generally delighted with the American statesman's address last night at the banquet given in his honor jointly by the municipality and the Tokio chamber of commerce.

Denied Charge.

Keokuk, Ia., Oct. 1.—John Gatley, an umbrella repairer, denied today that he had any intention of killing President Roosevelt. He was arrested on the charge of having threatened to shoot the President when he arrived here. In court the man explained: I had been drinking heavily for several days. Honestly, I did not mean to do it. I was just talking."

The friends of the two men took up the quarrel and a man named Adams was killed today.

RECEIVER FOR W., A & F. C. RY.

Pursuant to an order of the United States Circuit Court of the Eastern district of Virginia, signed by Judge Edmund Waddill, jr., at Norfolk, Monday, Major Charles Hine, of Vienna, Fairfax county, today assumed charge as receiver for the court of the Washington, Arlington and Falls Church Railway. Major Hine states that he takes charge of the property absolutely untrameled, except by the power of the court, and that he will operate it with the single purpose of preserving and protecting the property while serving the convenience and safety of the patrons of the road. It is yet too early to make any further statement as to his intended course except to say that all of the old officers and employees will be retained in service, at least for the present.

The W., A. & F. C. Railway is the road on which the serious accident happened a few months ago, which resulted in the killing of a motorman and the serious accident of other train men and a number of passengers. A large number of damage suits were at once entered against the road and to protect the interest of all parties concerned in this matter, and also in the ownership of the property, the receivership was decided upon. Maj. Hine was in the city today and gave bond before Deputy U. S. Clerk R P. W. Garnett in the sum of $25,000. The bond was furnished by the United States Fidelity Company, which is represented in this city by Mr. N. S. Greenaway. Accompanying Maj Hine to the city were Mr. C. R. Hinchman, treasurer of the company, and Messrs. J. S. Barbour and T. R. Keith, of Fairfax, attorneys.

SENT TO JAIL FOR SIXTY DAYS.

George Brooks was arrested yesterday by Officer Bell charged with stealing journal brasses belonging to the Southern Railway Company. The arrest was made at the instance of Officer Knight, who discovered that Brooks had sold the brass to a junk dealer. The accused was brought into the Police Court this morning, when the evidence showed that the brass had been broken into small pieces and sold for about $2 50. It was worth in its original shape $25. Brooks acknowledged that he sold the brass, but said that it had been thrown on a dump on a lot belonging to the railroad company. The accused was sent to jail for sixty days. Master Mechanic Kaderly in his evidence stated that it was impossible to expose any thing like brass in the yards of the company or in the round house without the risk of it being stolen. Justice Caton asked if there was any danger of locomotives being stolen. Mr. Kaderly in answer to the query said he had been compelled to make about seventy-five chains with which engines were locked to tracks in order to keep mischievous boys from mounting the locomotives and starting them.

POLICE COURT.

[Justice H. B. Caton presiding.]

The following cases were disposed of this morning:

Peter Kitts, colored, charged with stealing whisky from W. E. Sisson, was sent to jail for 30 days.

George Brooks, charged with stealing brass belonging to the Southern Railway Company, was sent to jail for 60 days.

A resident of the First ward, charged with allowing his cows to stray through the streets, forfeited his collateral by failing to answer the charge.

Sylvester Dean, charged with defacing property and disorderly conduct, was fined $10.

FINED TEN DOLLARS.

Some excitement was caused on Gibbon street, between Fairfax and Royal, about 12 o'clock last night, by a young man named Sylvester Dean, who was demanding entrance into a house occupied by Mrs. Emma Todd and her mother. Upon being denied admission, Dean, it is alleged, went to the back door and broke it open. The accused was arraigned in the Police Court this morning. He made no answer to the charge and was fined $10.

COLLARBONE BROKEN.

Henry Murray, a resident of this city, fell or was pushed from an electric train on King street, near Pitt, about 5 o'clock yesterday evening, and his collarbone was broken. Officer Knight had Murray sent to the Alexandria Hospital for treatment. Murray claimed that he was pushed from the train by one of the crew. The train stopped during the excitement and a number of people gathered. Murray was able to be about the streets today.

STOLE WHISKY.

Peter Kitts, an old offender, was arrested yesterday by Officer Garvey and Special Officer Carter charged with appropriating to himself three bottles of whisky valued at $1.50, belonging to W. E. Sisson. The theft was committed at an upper King street store. Kitts was brought before Justice Caton in the Police Court this morning and after the evidence had been heard he was sent to jail for 30 days.

SKATING RINK.

The Armory Hall skating rink will open tonight for the winter season and will be under the management of Messrs. P. J. Murphy and Windsor Demaine. Each skater will be given a coupon and the one holding the lucky number will receive a pair of Richardson ball-bearing skates. A large crowd will no doubt attend.

THE BENDHEIM OPENING.

Messrs. D. Bendheim & Sons' opening last night attracted many persons to their store. Fine music enlivened the scene. The display of dress goods and every variety of articles in their line was profuse, and for several hours the visitors were greatly interested in examining the mammoth stock. The Messrs. Bendheim have ever been in the front rank of dry goods merchants. Their store is one of the oldest in Alexandria and in the State, and the firm enjoys a large and steadily increasing patronage.

OUR AUTUNN-WINTER OPENING

Today and Following Days of the Week.

ON THIS occasion will be shown the exclusive styles of the season, giving a comprehensive idea of the approved fashions as conceived by the foremost artists of Europe and America, comprising, in part, Parisian and American Millinery, Elegant Wraps and Costumes for day and evening; Exclusive Novelties in Dress Stuffs, Silks and Velvets; Furs, Real Laces, Paris Lingerie, Bridal Trousseaux and Corsets, Silk Petticoats and Negligees; Gloves Neckwear, Hosiery, Men's Clothing, Hats and Haberdashery; Curtains, Draperies, Rugs, Table and Toilet Linens, Pictures, Cut Glass, Silverware, Chinaware, Clocks, Bronzes, Marbles, Lamps, Art Objects and the many different things that are needed to make the wardrobe and household complete and beautify daily living. You are invited to share the results.

We Announce For This Tuesday Formal Exhibit of the NEW DRESS GOODS.

THE new Dress Fabrics are peculiarly rich and beautiful—quiet, restful, subdued, harmonious colorings that appeal to good taste. This is equally true of American stuffs which this season are more attractive than ever before, and the rare and elegant things that we brought over from Paris direct. Many of the new patterns and weaves of our Fall Dress Materials are exclusive and are distinctive in their absolute novelty and by their delightful combinations of colors.

Broadcloth, Voile, Panama, Serge and Cheviot Suitings are in the lead.

The broadcloths have been reduced in weight until they are soft and supple enough for almost any purpose.

The new striped broadcloths are the novelty of the season.

Plaids, in blocks, hair lines, broken and ombre effects, are very stylish—of course, plain effects hold their own.

For automobiling, golfing and all outing wear the rough, snappy tweeds are the favorites.

Serge for tailor costumes of all kinds is very good.

An especially pretty selection of Scotch and French plaids is shown for children's school dresses.

While there is nothing especially new in fabrics, the new colors and new color combinations more than make up for it.

Never before have we had so many new shadings of one prime color. Take purple, for instance: Bishop, prelate, eminence, mulberry, egg plant, violet and mauve—all are shades of purple. Then take green: Lanier, bronze, lizard, caimay are all new and very popular shades.

Brown in all its shades continues very good.

The blue tine shades, which include all the castor tones, with just a suggestion of yellow, are new and stylish.

Copenhagen leads in the blue family. Then, there are paquin, gobelin and saxe.

The best shades of gray are moleskin, chauffeur and taupe.

This will be a season when black will be worn more than it has been in many years. Combinations of black-and-white (not white-and-black) are to be very stylish.

DRY GOODS

To the Public:

We want to thank the hundreds of our friends who responded so heartily to our "Fall Opening" invitation. We naturally expected a great crowd, but must confess that even the great floor space of this popular house was unable to accommodate the enormous outpouring. We were simply overwhelmed with the vast throngs that attended our "Fall Opening" yesterday afternoon and evening. A large number of our friends were disappointed at not receiving the courteous attention we always give them, but on account of the great rush it was simply impossible for us to do better. For the benefit of all those who were unable to see our display we have decided not to disturb the display for several days.

Respectfully yours,

He Earned the Hat.

Barty Hilliard, who many years ago lived in a small town in northern Vermont, was noted for his careless vagabond habits, ready wit and remarkable facility for extempore rhyming. While he was sitting one day in the village store of what is now a part of Montpelier among a group of idlers the genial merchant asked him why he wore such a shockingly bad hat. Barty replied that he could not afford a better one.

"Come now," said the merchant, "make me a rhyme on a bad hat, and I will give you the best I have in my store." Instantly Barty threw the old one on the floor and began:

Here lies my old hat,
And pray what of that?
It's as good as the rest of my raiment!
If I buy me a better
You'll make me your debtor
And send me to jail for the payment.

The new hat was voted to be fairly won, and Barty bore it off in triumph, saying, "It's a poor head that can't take care of itself."—Boston Herald.

No Duplicate Chandeliers.

"Did you ever notice," said the observing man, "that every public building has chandeliers unlike those of any other public building? There are no duplicates. You go into one church and you see a handsome chandelier that it would seem worth while to duplicate for another church, but you never find it in another church. You go into a big hall, and you'll observe some stunning globes and chandelier fixtures and look for 'em in some other big hall, but they're not there. I don't know what principle the makers of chandeliers go on, whether it is a matter of pride with them not to fit out two buildings alike or whether contractors for such buildings insist on exclusive designs, but the chandelier people must employ some remarkably versatile artists to think up so many different designs. It seems like a waste of money to make only one of a kind, but it is a pleasure to know that hall or home may be exclusive in its chandeliers."

The Concertina.

The threatened revival of the concertina as a serious musical instrument in England would be a return to an old fashion no doubt, but not to a very old one, since the concertina dates from the early part of the last century. Its invention was an early indiscretion of Sir Charles Wheatstone of telegraph fame, who took out a patent for it in 1829, the very year in which somebody in Vienna invented that similar instrument, the accordion. The concertina was popularized by Sig. Regondi, who had come before the public as a juvenile prodigy with the guitar. At one time no London concert was really complete without him and his concertina, and he astounded the Germans with the music he could get out of it.

Gladstone as an Orator.

It was a budget last night—about a page of a morning paper spoken in two hours by Mr. Gladstone, and he hardly referred to a note, never paused a moment, broke through cheers, dashed over interpellations, logic, figures, illustrations, extracts—all pellmell, with a whirl and fury that took the breath away. And he did it all with the utmost ease and got to the end without turning a hair. Mr. Gladstone took it all quietly and did it quietly and left the house and went home quietly, probably mentioning to Mrs. Gladstone as a reason for being rather tired that he had been saying a "few words" that evening.—From Whitty's "Parliamentary Retrospect."

Temperatures of Flames.

According to the results of experiments, the flame of acetylene is perhaps the hottest known except that of the electric arc. The following figures have been given: Bunsen burner, 1,871 degrees; acetylene flame, 2,548 degrees; alcohol flame, 1,705 degrees; Denayrouze burner—half alcohol, half petroleum—2,053 degrees; hydrogen flame in air, 1,900 degrees; gas jet flame with oxygen, 2,200 degrees; oxyhydrogen flame, 2,420 degrees. These are all centigrade degrees. One degree centigrade equals 1.8 degrees F.

Too Fast.

"The first day he went out with his new auto he got pulled."

"For going fast?"

"No; quite the opposite."

"I don't see"—

"For stopping fast. He had to hire a farmer to haul him home."—Houston Post.

How to Cure a Cold.

The question of how to cure a cold without unnecessary loss of time is one in which we are all more or less interested, for the quicker a cold is gotton rid of the less the danger of pneumonia and other serious diseases. Mr. B. W. L. Hall, of Waverly, Va., has used Chamberlain's Cough Remedy for years and says: "I firmly believe Chamberlain's Cough Remedy to be absolutely the best preparation on the market for colds. I have recommended it to my friends and they all agree with me." For sale by Gibson & Timberman and W. F. Creighton & Co.

To check a cold quickly, get from your druggist some little Candy Cold Tablets called Preventics. Druggists everywhere are now dispensing Preventics, for they are not only safe, but decidedly certain and prompt. Preventics contain no Quinine, no laxative, nothing harsh or sickening. Taken at the "sneeze stage" Preventics will prevent Pneumonia, Bronchitis, La Grippe, etc. Hence the name, Preventics. Good for feverish children. 48 Preventics 25 cents. Trial Boxes 5 cts. Sold by E. S. Leadbeater & Sons.

Hard Times in Kansas.

The old days of grasshoppers and drought are almost forgotten in prosperous Kansas of today; although a citizen of Codell, Earl Shamburg, has not yet forgotten a hard time he encountered. He says: "I was worn out and discouraged by coughing night and day, and could find no relief till I tried Dr. King's New Discovery. It took less than one bottle to completely cure me." The safest and most reliable cough and cold remedy and lung and throat healer ever discovered. Guaranteed by all drug stores. 50c and $1.00. Trial bottle free.

A weak Stomach, causing dispepsia, a weak Heart with palpitation of intermittent pulse, always means weak Stomach nerves or weak Heart nerves. Strengthen these inside or controlling nerves with Dr. Shoop's Restorative and see how quickly these ailments disappear. Dr. Shoop, of Racine, Wis., will mail samples free. Write for them. A test will tell. Your health is certainly worth this simple trial. Sold by E S. Leadbeater & Sons.
